

WHAT YOU HOLD IN HANDS HERE,
is an edition of PAPERGIRL

This is an artproject which, in the style of american paper-boys, distributes rolled art pieces by bicycle.

The concept is simple: All submitted work of the participating artists, is beeing exhibited, then placed on piles, rolled up and all together distributed by bike. Since all given work is not handed in as files, but as „originals“, every roll is an unique copy!

Papergirl is for free, but all rights lie within the artists. Congratulations to this catch. Have fun with it or please pass it on to others!

The exhibition:
